PREFACE.

THE Author desires to acknowledge the kind assistance he has received from his friends, the Rev. William Cruickshank, B.D., and the Rev. R. S. Kemp, B.D., in the revision of proof-sheets. He has also to thank Mr. Cruickshank for drawing up the list of kindred literature, published within the last quarter of a century, which will be found in the Appendix. Many of the books contained in the list have been consulted by the Author in the preparation of these Lectures.
