

INDEX

- Abode of dead, 40 ff.
 Absolutism, and Pluralism, 110 ; and values, 124 ; and finite centres, 146.
 Animals and death, 2.
 Apocalyptic literature, 211-13.
 Aristotle, 108, 111.
 Authority, decay of, 8.

 Berkeley, 18.
 Biology and soul, 80.
 Body, and future life, 20-1 ; and mind, 85-6 ; a spiritual, 143.
 Book of Dead, 45.
 Bosanquet, B., 122 ff., 171.
 Bradley, F. H., 122.
 Brahmanism, 56-7.
 Brain and mind, 76 ff.
 Breath and soul, 37.
 Brown, Adams, 214.
 Buddhism, 58, 59.
 Butler, Bishop, 161.

 Caird, E., quoted, 4.
 Carlyle, T., 197.
 Charles, R. H., quoted, 199, 211.
 Christ, 8, 190 ; on future life,
 213-14 ; resurrection of, 218.
 Christianity and immortality, 3,
 212 ff., 227-9.
 Continuity and environment,
 138-9.
 Creationism, 130.
 Crisis, the present, 16 ff.
 "Cross references," 92 ff.
 Daniel, Book of, 211.

 Darwin, 7.
 Death, fact of, 1 ff. ; primitive ideas of, 34-5 ; change wrought by, 144-5 ; Christian view of, 220.
 Deists, 6.
 Demeter, 49.
 Descartes, 108-9.
 Diogenes, 50.
 Dionysus, 50.
 Dualism, no ultimate, 224-5.
 Duration and immortality, 25.

 Egyptian religion and future life, 47.
 Eleusinian Mysteries, 48 ff.
 Entity, soul as an, 21.
 Epigenesis, 133.
 Epiphenomenon, mind as, 73.
 Eschatology, backwardness of,
 199 ; Hebrew, 207 ff.
 Ethical argument, nature of,
 151-3 ; lack of finality in,
 194-5.
 Ethics, alleged independence of,
 149.
 Evil, significance of, 225-6.
 Evolution, influence of idea, 6-
 7 ; process of, 68-9.
 Exile, Hebrew, 209.
 Ezekiel, 210.

 Faith and immortality, 218-19,
 229.
 Fear of spirits of dead, 38.
 Fiske, J., quoted, 196.
 Frazer, J. G., quoted, 7, 40, 215.

- Future state, distinctions in, 43-4; as fulfilment of this life, 61-2; coloured by idea of God, 193.
- Ghost, primitive idea of, 38.
- God, and development of soul, 134; and change, 145; as ground of world, 195-6; transcendence of, 202; and immortality, 203-4; and spiritual progress, 228.
- Good, the Chief, Kant on, 164; demand for realisation of, 166-7.
- Hades, 42, 43, 208.
- Hegel, on immortality, 118-19.
- Historic method, value of, 30 ff.; and validity, 31.
- Holmes, J. H., 70, 94.
- Homer, 37, 43.
- Hume, quoted, 15, 18-19.
- Huxley, T. H., 10.
- Ideal, the moral, difficulty in stating, 184.
- Ideal world, as purely immanent, 171-3.
- Idealism and immortality, 102.
- Imitation of Christ*, 4.
- Immortality, and popular thought, 11; importance of, 18, 27; meaning of, 21; essential need expressed in, 26; personal and social aspects of, 62-3; when does it begin? 87 ff.; goal of social development, 187-8.
- Incompleteness of life, argument from, 162 ff.
- Individual never fully expresses himself, 177.
- Industrial progress, 13-14.
- Interaction of mind and matter, 78-9.
- Isaiah, Book of, 211.
- Jahveh, Hebrew idea of, 201-2.
- Jeremiah, 210.
- Jesus, vide Christ.
- Job, 210.
- Johannine Epistles, 217.
- Justice, argument from, 153 ff.; as immanent in world, 158 ff.; argument from, tends to coalesce with that from incompleteness, 169.
- Kaftan, 222.
- Kant, idea of self, 115-16; criticism of rational proofs, 116-17; his own contribution negative, 118; his moral proof, 163 ff.; quoted, 164-5.
- Karma, 57, 58.
- Kingdom of God, Christian idea of, 214-6; transition from mundane to supramundane, 221-3.
- Kingdom, Messianic, 211.
- Le Conte, 70.
- Leibniz, his monads, 112; on soul and body, 113-14; on dominant monad, 128, 131-2; distinguishes soul and mind, 132-3.
- Leuba, J. H., quoted, 152.
- Lodge, O., 91, 92, 94, 97.
- Lotze, 79, 84, 86; on immortality, 119 ff., 129.
- McDougall, W., 85; quoted, 90, 92.
- McTaggart, J. E., 22, 73, 146.
- Materialism, 66, 71 ff.
- Mechanism, as explanation, 81.
- Memory, 84, 89-90; and immortality, 135 ff.
- Metaphysics, limitations of, 147.
- Metempsychosis, 54 ff.
- Middle Ages and immortality, 4.
- Moore, G. F., 57.
- Moral law, Kant on, 163-4.
- Myers, F. W., 91, 93.
- Mystery-religions, 48 ff.
- Mysticism, 204.

- Nation, as religious unit in Israel, 208.
- Natural Sciences and immortality, 67 ff.
- Naturalism, 71.
- Nirvana, 58.
- Offerings at tomb, 39.
- Orcus, 43.
- Organism and mechanism, 80 ff.; and environment, 139-40.
- Origin and validity, 32 ff.
- Orphicism, 48, 103.
- Osiris, 42, 45.
- Osler, W., quoted, 11.
- Other-worldliness, protest against, 170.
- Paulsen, F., 171.
- Persian religion, 51.
- Personal, applied to immortality, 22 ff.
- Personality, and memory, 24; and habits, 89-90, 139; importance of, 175, 188-9; religious view of, 221.
- Philosophy and beliefs about soul, 101; and possibility of immortality, 125 ff.
- Plato, his treatment of immortality, 103 ff.; on simplicity of the soul, 105; soul a first principle, 106; priority of soul, 107; his ethical proof, 154 ff.; future punishment, 156.
- Pluralism, 205; vide Absolutism.
- Podmore, F., 92, 97.
- Postulate, immortality as, 151-3, 168-9, 190.
- Primitive man, and death, 34-5; and survival, 35-6.
- Pringle-Pattison, A. S., 152-3.
- Progress, not necessary, 181-2; as an ideal, 182-3; its transcendent goal, 184-6.
- Psychical dispositions, 89-90, 137-8.
- Psychical Research, 91, 98.
- Psycho-physical parallelism, 73 ff.
- Punishment, function of, 157.
- Purpose and life, 82-3.
- Pythagoras, 54-5; ideas of his school, 103.
- Race, immortality of, 177 ff.; as ethical end of individual, 179-80.
- Reformation and Scholasticism, 5.
- Religion, development of, 198-9; transcendent aspect of, 200 ff.; as redemptive, 206.
- Resurrection of body, 222-3; vide Christ.
- Retribution, 46-7; case for, 157.
- Royce, J., 146.
- St. Paul, 20, 142, 216-17, 228.
- Schiller, F. C. S., quoted, 8-9.
- Schleiermacher, quoted, 205.
- Science and immortality, 70 ff., 98-9.
- Sheol, 42, 43, 208, 212.
- Sidgwick, Mrs., 95.
- Society as end and means to personal life, 185 ff.
- Sophocles, 39.
- Soul, and self, 22; savage ideas of, 36 ff.; and burial-place, 39; as organising, 86; as substance, 117; and pre-existence, 129 ff.; as teleological principle, 141.
- Spencer, H., 7, 10.
- Spinoza, 74, 75, 111.
- Spiritual development and immortality, 63-5.
- Stimuli, fusion of, 85.
- Survival, belief in, 39-40.
- Taylor, A. E., quoted, 160.
- Teleology and life, 80 ff., 127, 140-1.
- Telepathy, 94, 96.
- Tennyson, 25.

- Theism and immortality, 206 ;
vide God.
- Time and future existence, 144-5.
- Traducianism, 130.
- Transcendence, in relation to ends and values, 202-3.
- Transcendent life, not solitary, 191; nor eternally fixed, 191-2.
- Transmigration of souls, 52 ff. ;
vide Metempsychosis.
- Tylor, E. B., 44, 54.
- Upanishads, 56, 57.
- Valhalla, 61.
- Validity, vide Origin.
- Values, and immortality, 150; conservation of, 175 ff. ; claim to objectivity, 174-5; and persons, 188-9.
- Vedic Hymns, 45-6, 55.
- Vendidad, 51.
- Virtue and happiness, 159-60.
- Wallace, A. R., 70.
- Ward, J., 116, 117, 205.
- Wonder and beginning of philosophy, 100.
- Worldliness and faith in immortality, 15.
- Youth and maturity, analogy of, 170-1.